3. The actual field grid on the ground will be clearly marked with all 'land parcel' squares being of equal shape and size. The field grid (and cow) will be protected by a barrier or fence. Spectators and 'land parcel' square holders must not interfere with the progress of the event.

If the cow has not placed a cow pie within 2 hours (by 4:00pm on March 17 2020), the prize money will be awarded via raffle drawing at 5:30 pm.
10. If the judge rules that a participant has unfairly interfered with the event or the cow, then their ticket may be deemed "disqualified" and become an "unsold" square
11. The winner of €500 will be the ticket holder corresponding to the winning grid area number - 8 nearest splat squares around the winning square will also receive €50 each.
12. In the event that the cow poo deposit lands on multiple squares, the square with the largest portion of poo deposit will be declared the winner. The event judge(s) have final say in determining the winning square(s).
